

CAO YU'S LEGACY

The 100th anniversary of Cao Yu's birth was commemorated in 2010 by a year of events across China, together with symposia and exhibitions in Hong Kong, Macao, Japan and the USA.

Through the work of Cao Yu, and fellow pioneers, an unfamiliar imported theatrical genre finally flowered into the Chinese spoken drama which today enjoys an enthusiastic following among Chinese theatre practitioners and younger audiences.

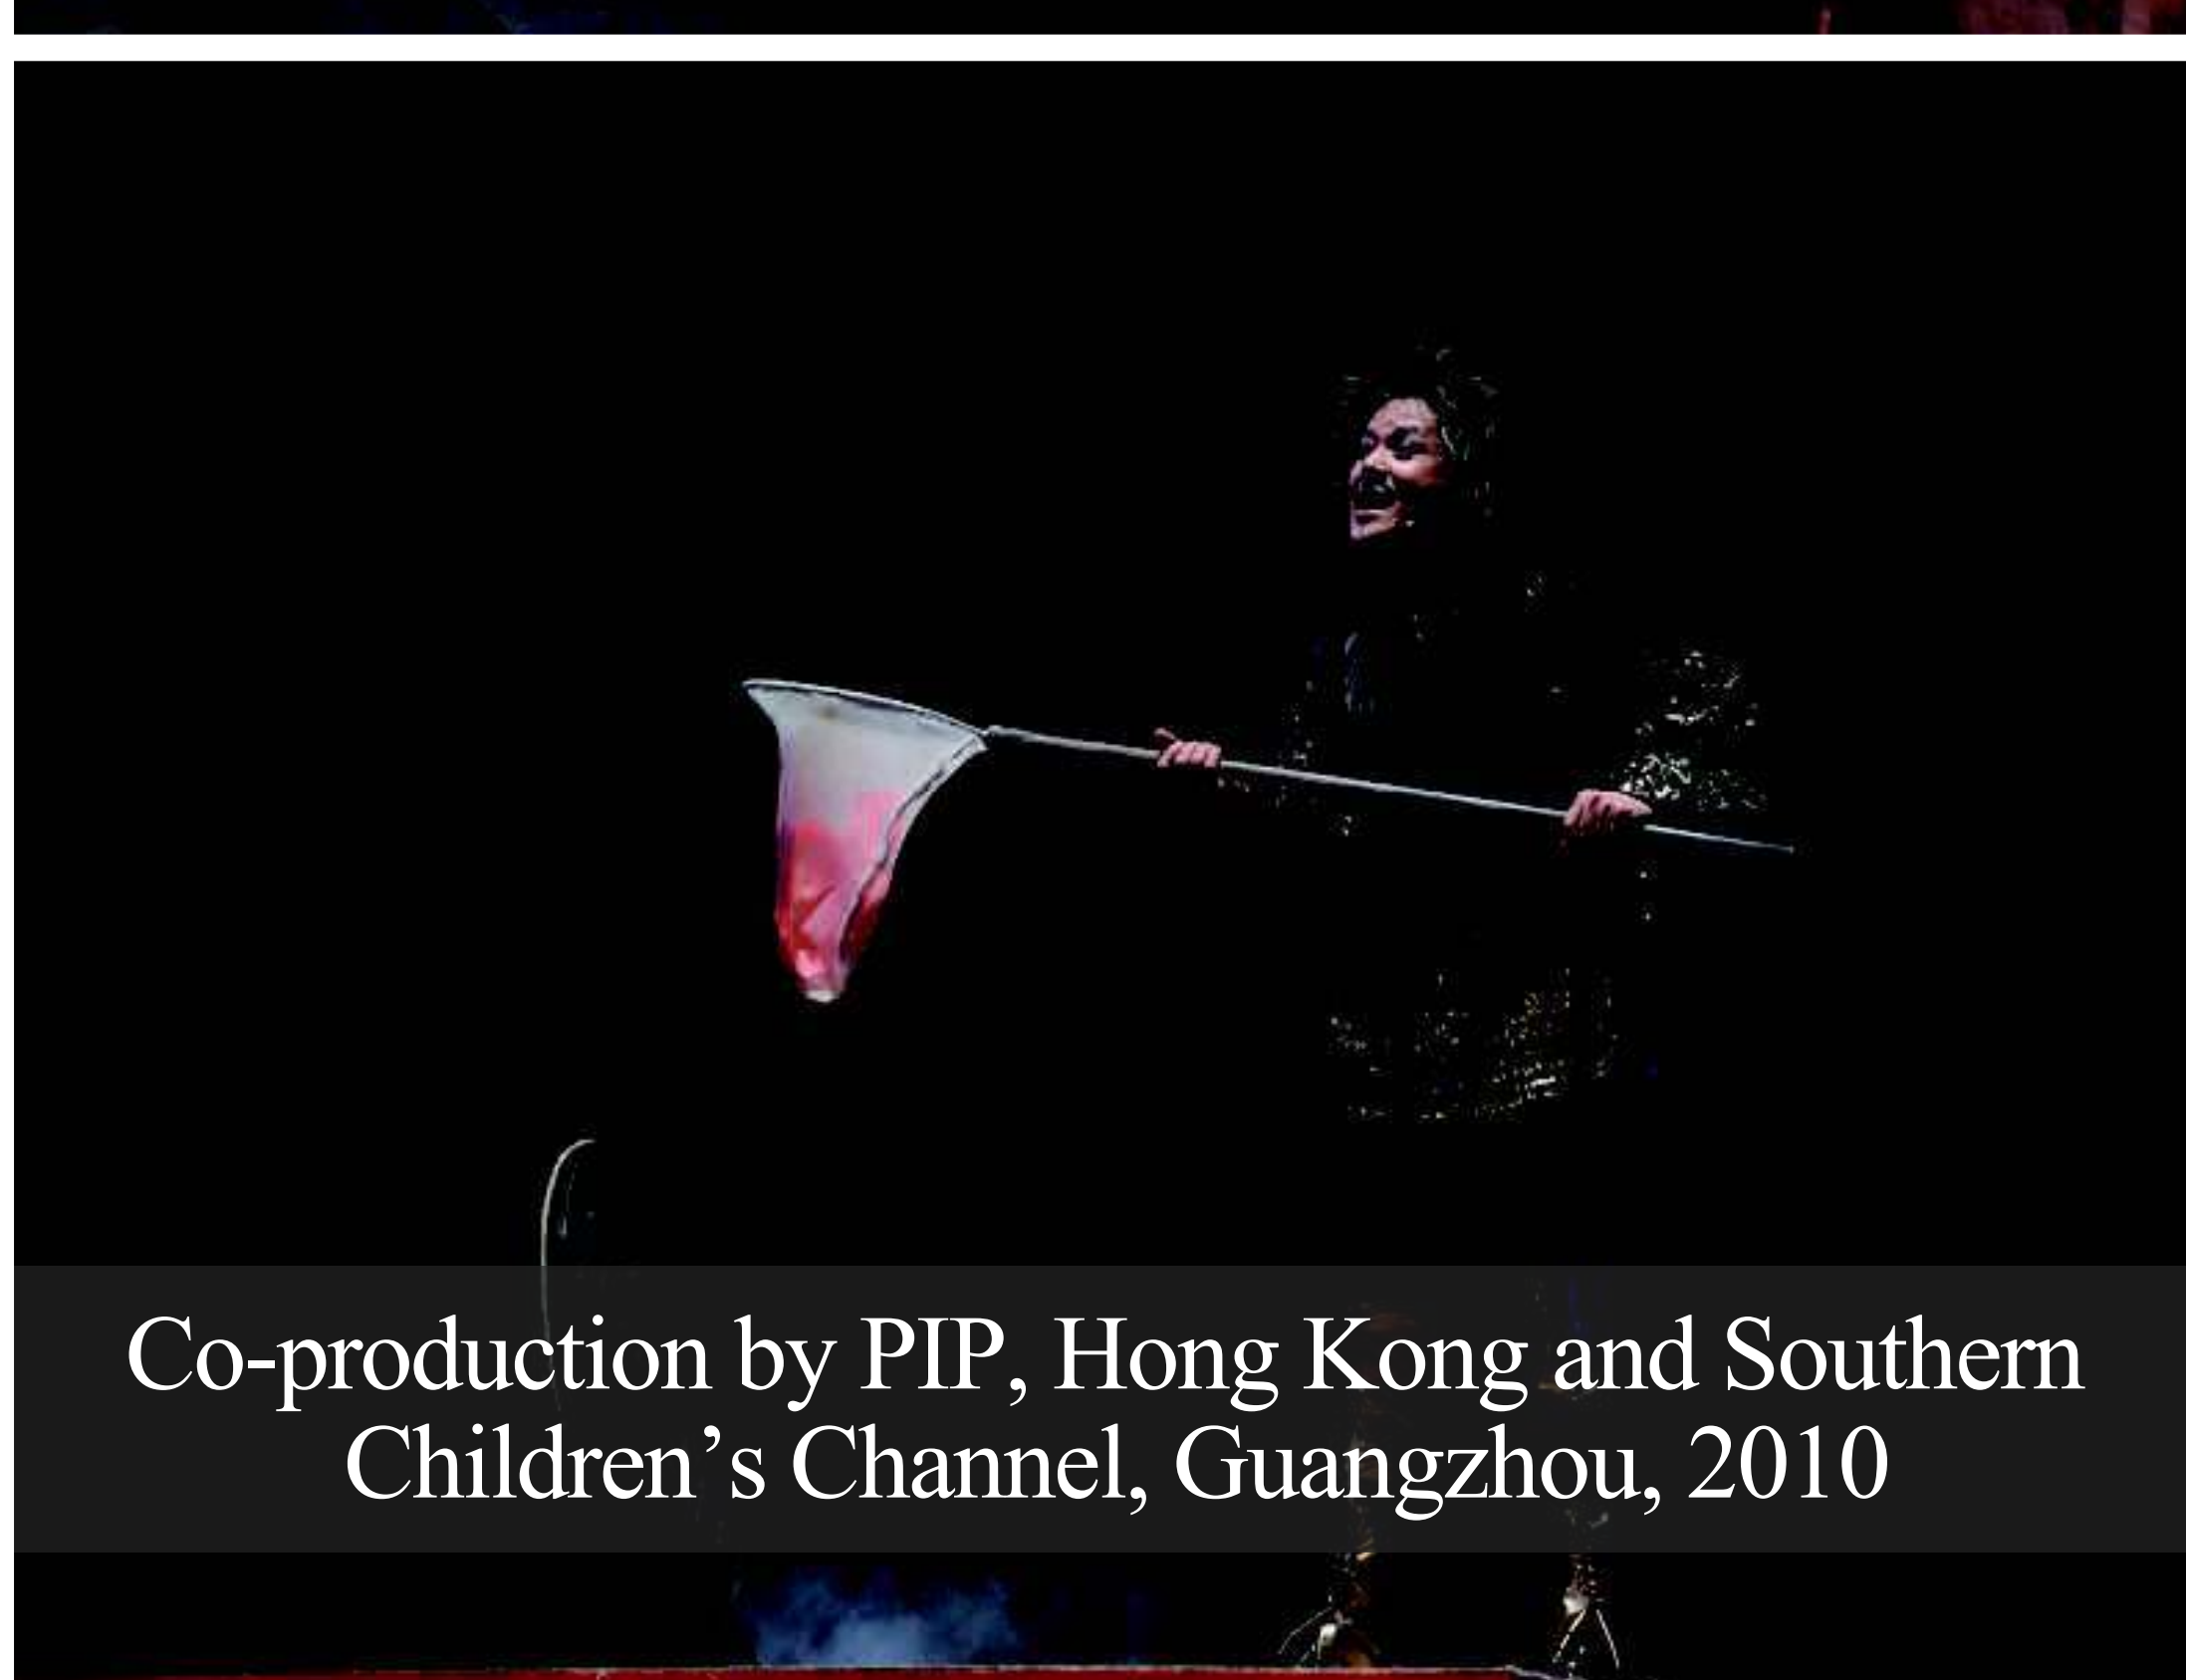

Grass Stage, Shanghai, 2008

Cao Yu Centenary exhibition in Hong Kong, 2010

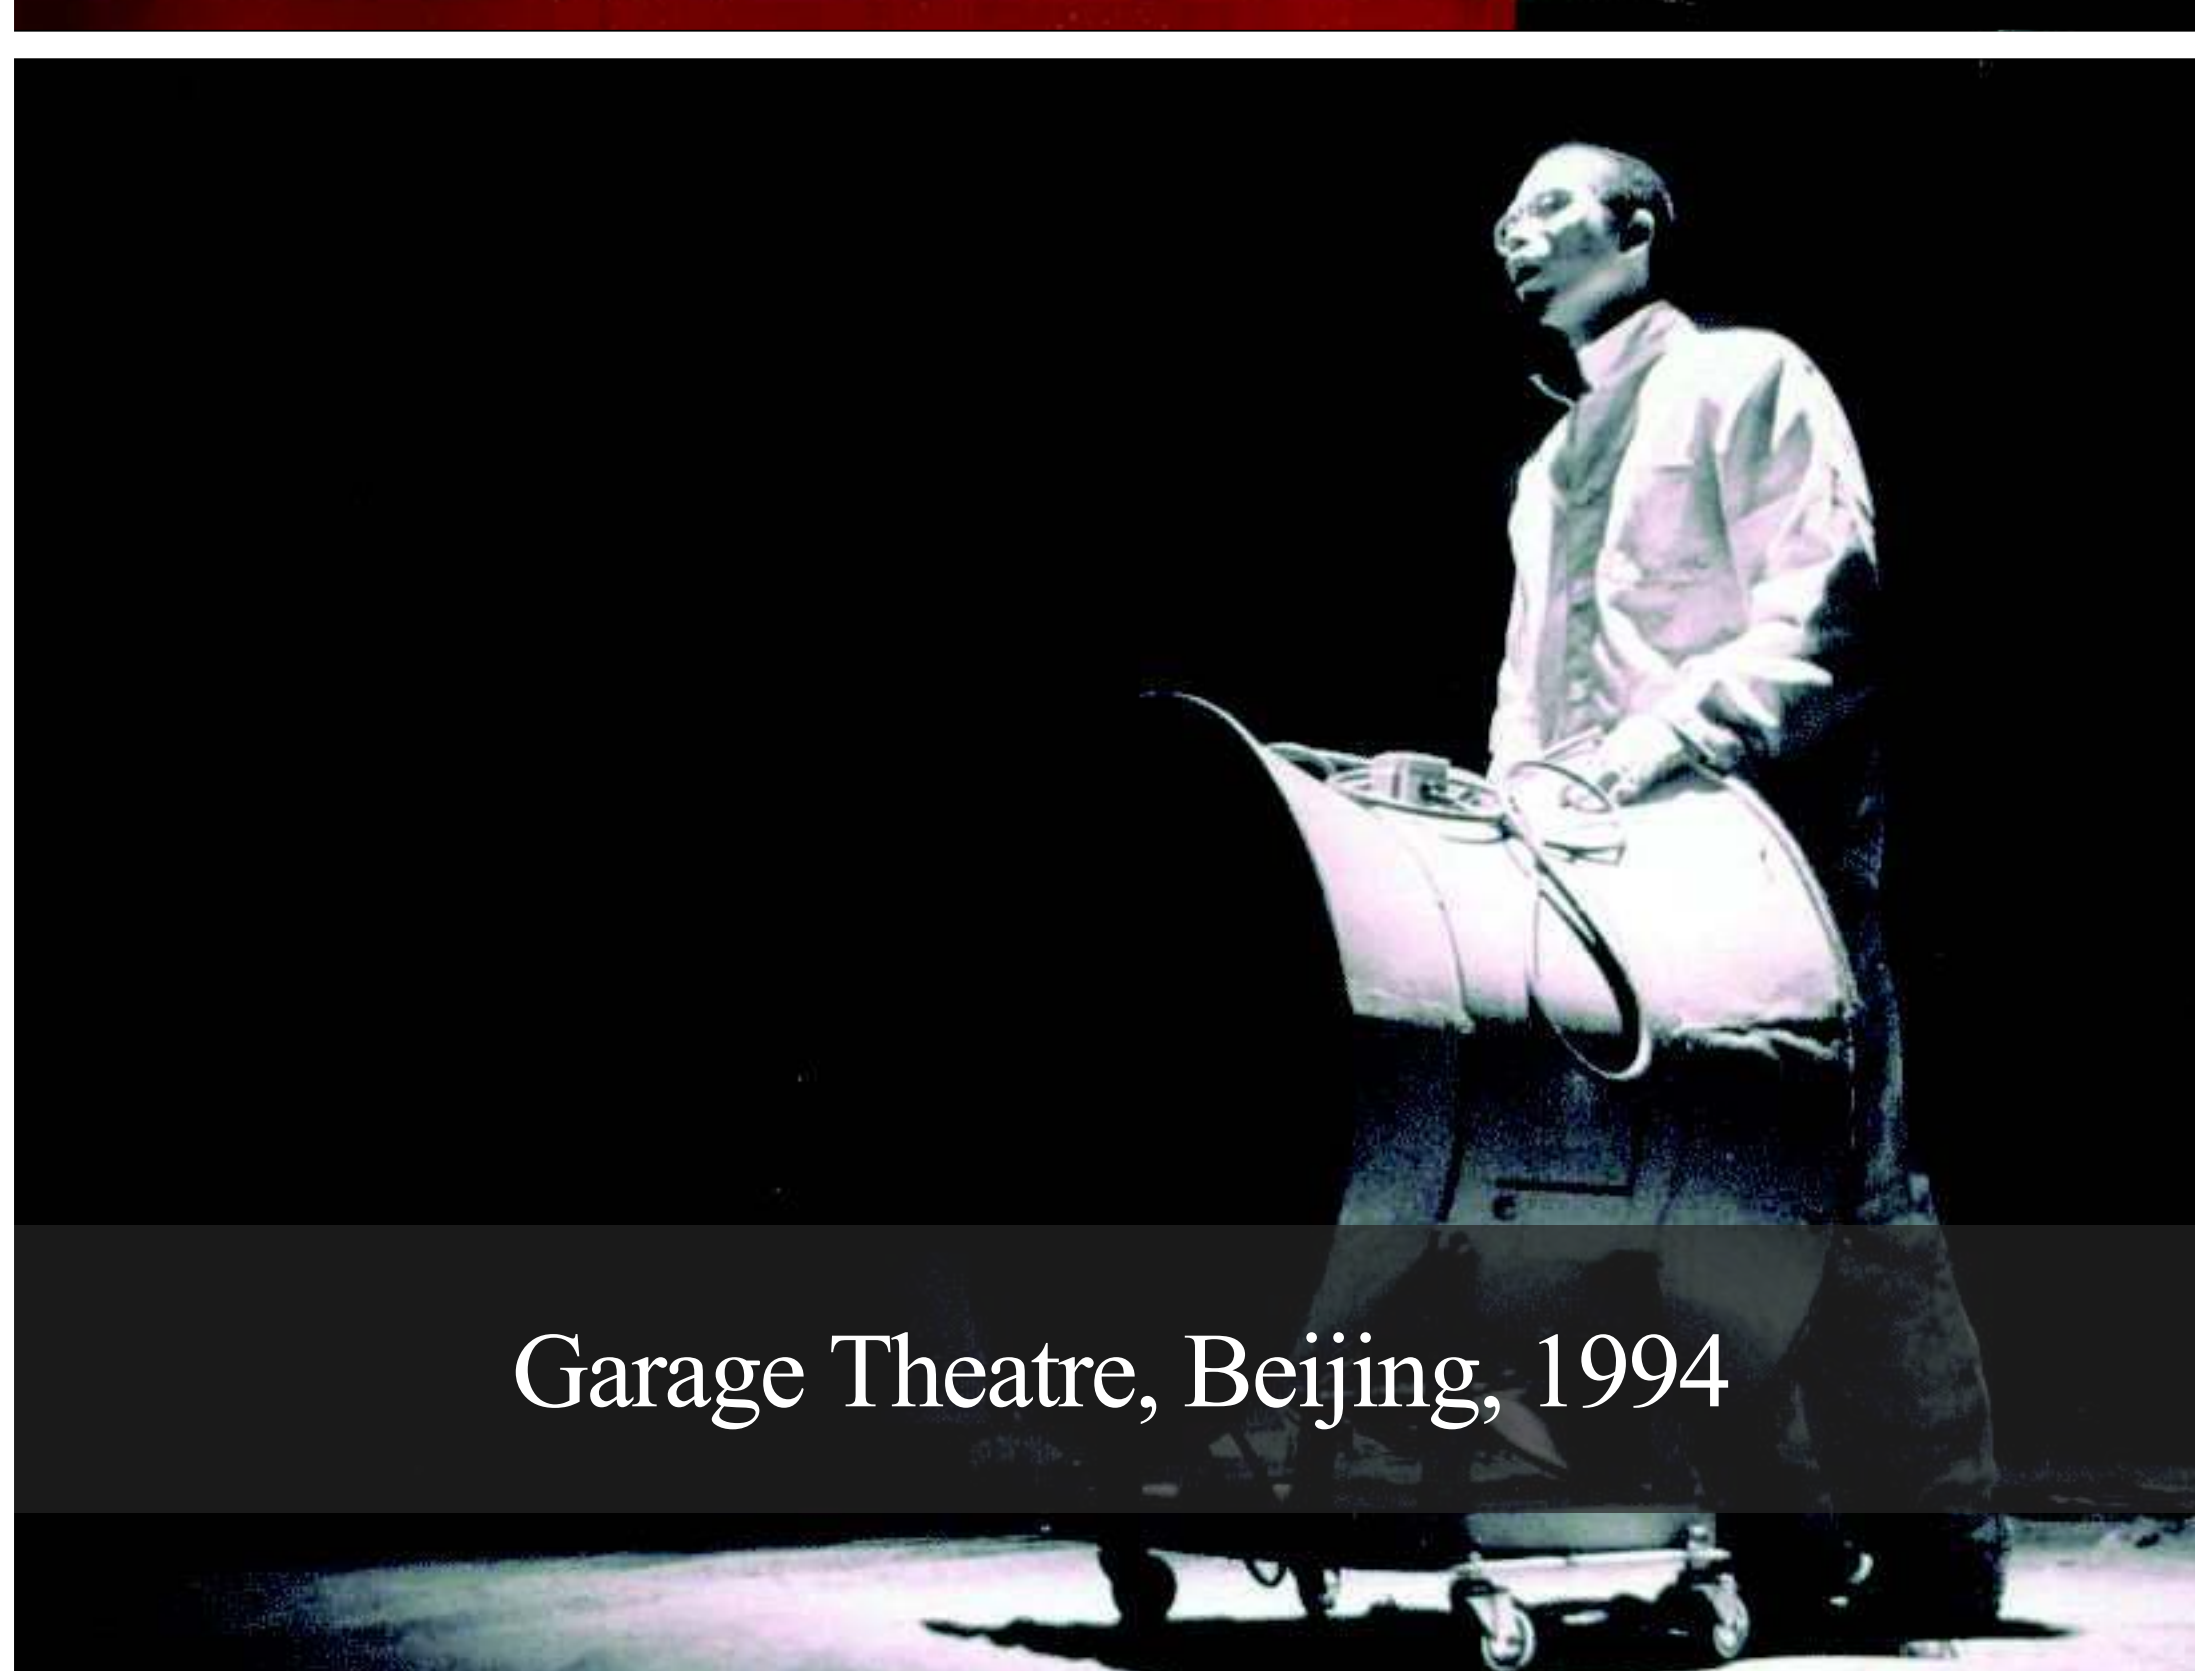

Cao Yu Centenary exhibition at Waseda University, Tokyo, 2010

Co-production by PIP, Hong Kong and Southern Children's Channel, Guangzhou, 2010

Shanghai Music Conservatory Drama Club, 2010

Garage Theatre, Beijing, 1994

International symposium commemorating Cao Yu's centenary in Tianjin and Beijing, 2010

Ling Yunyan Company, a physical theatre based in Shandong province, 2010

Shenzhen University Students' Drama Club, 2009

Opening of the Cao Yu Theatre in his hometown, Tianjin, 2010

Sponsored by:

SINO-BRITISH FELLOWSHIP TRUST

上海戲劇學院
SHANGHAI THEATRE ACADEMY

SeeWoo
Oriental Food Specialists
酒和行
No.1 for choice

EKT Innovation Programme
School of Modern Languages and Cultures

London Confucius Institute

Confucius Institute for Scotland

Dr. Chan Cheng 單聲